2022 Save Driver Scholarship is open!

Are you a high school senior (in Colorado), college student, or first-year law student enrolled in a two to five-year institution in Colorado in 2022? Do you need help paying for schooling or supplies? You are not alone. College is not cheap, but we don't want that to stop you from pursuing this irreplaceable experience.

At The Law Offices of Dianne Sawaya, we have experienced first-hand the benefits of higher education. That is why we are offering a $1,000 scholarship to help one student go to college, law school, or other institution of higher education.

Free Legal Insight

More than ever our firm is seeing insurance companies working their best tricks to have injured people settle before they speak with an attorney. They do this because an attorney knows what the real value of the case is and will get a higher settlement.

Don't let you or someone you love fall victim to these insurance tricks. Give us a call today for a free consultation.
