GO WEST
YOUNG MAN,

KEY WEST

As we northerners settle in for the long cold winter, we only have one thing on our minds. Escape. If you are looking to give Old Man Winter the slip, Florida is one of your best options. While most vacationers hit up the pristine beaches or Disney World, as a motorcycle enthusiast you should seriously consider the run on the Overseas Highway from Miami to Key West. At 113 miles long, including the famous 7-mile bridge, the Overseas Highway is a must ride if you are going to spend time on two wheels in the Sunshine State. As you hang a right at Key Largo and head out onto Highway 1 you experience a one-of-a-kind motorcycle ride with the ocean hugging you on all sides. At the end of the ride is the infinitely quirky and hospitable Key West, famed for its pastel colored, conch-style houses and bars that close at 4am. Enjoy your time at the local watering hole, or jump on a local boat tour, but make sure you get a photo in front of the Southernmost Point of the Continental US monument to maximize the social media jealousy of the friends who didn't join you on the trip.

WINTER UPGRADES

While the snow will linger for another month or so across most of the country, February is the perfect time to start thinking about your winter upgrades, particularly if you want to do some engine work. Getting the jump on ordering your parts and scheduling your appointment now will avoid the spring rush which could leave you without your wheels when the sun starts shining in early spring. Nothing is worse than having your bike in the shop when Spring decides to show up. If you haven't done it already, Cam work is the best bang for your buck when it comes to performance upgrades. On most V-Twins this upgrade will give you a significant jump in horsepower and torque and won't hurt your checkbook like a full teardown. Make use of your winter downtime and be ready for Spring!

ROMANCE RIDES

If you're lucky enough to find a partner who also enjoys the thrill of two wheeled travel here are 5 Romantic Rides that will keep the fire alive on and off the bike.

1) Pacific Coast Highway, California

Endless exploration and spectacular views greet you along the Pacific Coast Highway no matter where you start or stop. From San Diego, California to Seattle, Oregon the PCH delivers mountain views on the Olympic Peninsula, awe inspiring Redwood tree forests, gorgeous rolling coastal hills and some specular cities to visit in between.

2) Rocky Mountain National Park, Colorado

Pound for pound this ride might be the most spectacular route in the lower 48. After weaving through elk herds grazing in the grasslands you wind your way up to 12,183 feet at its peak. The road gracefully saunters back and forth across the top of the ridge with mountain ranges on both sides. There are a few spots to park and hike, and in the late spring and summer the blooming flowers make for a very Sound of Music atmosphere.

3) Covered Bridge Tour, Pennsylvania

Located in Bucks County, Pennsylvania the covered bridge tour features 12 covered bridges on a beautiful easy-going backroad adventure. Historically known as "kissing bridges", the covered bridge tour makes an perfect romantic 2-Up escape. Pack a lunch and enjoy a picturesque ride through 1800's Pennsylvania, your partner won't be disappointed.

4) Tunnel of Trees, Michigan

This ride is a top choice in the fall when the canopy of large trees transforms into a breathtaking view of fall colors. The Tunnel of Trees winds its way out of Harbor Springs, Michigan with some magnificent views of Lake Michigan sprinkled in for good measure. This relaxed section of Michigan is full of small towns with cool shops and unique Mom and Pop restaurants.

5) Pig Trail Scenic Byway, Arkansas

It has the least romantic name of our five choices, but the road and the views will not disappoint those looking to get out on the road with their significant other. Like the Tunnel of Trees the Pig Trail is great in the summer and spectacular in the fall with the colors on full display. As you make your way through the Ozark National Forest there are plenty of places to stop for food or go explore one of the many thriving small towns that are very welcoming to motorcyclists. Air BNB has some amazing options for romantic lodging off the beaten path.

GREAT GEAR:

Tobacco Motorwear Protective Jeans

The advancement of protective equipment. Lucky for them, companies like Tobacco Motorwear have created high quality, natural looking and feeling jeans with the advanced protection of the same material in bullet-proof vests. Their proprietary Comfort Controlled Lining is made with 100% abrasion and high temperature resistant fiber thread lining. If you are interested, check out their social media pages for some very impressive asphalt surfing video demonstrations on how well their protective system works. The Tobacco Motorwear jeans live up to their high price tag with a great look and extremely high build quality and protection. The only downfall that we could find was for such a modern, technical jean they went with a button-down fly straight from the 1800's. Add an extra 15 minutes to your rest stops to make up for the button wrestling that will inevitably take place.
