NEWS & UPDATES

Maximize the Settlement You Deserve

If you, a family member, friend, or neighbor have been injured in a car accident or were hurt by a hit-and-run driver, you could be entitled to compensation for medical expenses, lost wages, out of pocket expenses, pain and suffering, and more. But you may find that the insurance company won't do right by you. They try to convince you to settle quickly for less than you deserve – or even refuse to pay you at all.

It takes a smart, aggressive car accident attorney like Dianne Sawaya to work with the insurance company, so they live up to their obligation and pay you the money you deserve. Insurance companies have learned that if they don't offer you a fair settlement, our car accident attorneys won't hesitate to take your car accident case to trial and litigate your needs in front of a judge and jury.

Dianne Sawaya has worked with thousands of clients over the years – clients who have trusted their cases with Dianne and the Denver, Colorado personal injury attorneys at The Law Offices of Dianne Sawaya. Give us a call today for a no cost consultation to discuss your case.

Bacon-Wrapped Cheese-Stuffed Dates

Ingredients

- 2 oz. cream cheese, softened
- 2/3 c. blue cheese crumbles
- 1 tbsp. thinly sliced chives, plus more for garnish
- 1/4 tsp. paprika
- 20 Medjool dates, pitted (from 12 oz. package)

- 10 slices bacon (not thick cut), halved crosswise
- 2 jalapeños, cut into 20 (1/4-inch thick) slices
- 2 tbsp. honey

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 400°. Line a rimmed baking sheet with aluminum foil and set aside.
2. Stir together the blue cheese, cream cheese, chives, and paprika in a small bowl.
3. Cut lengthwise down the side of each date, cutting just far enough so the date can be opened up like a book, but not through the other side. Stuff each date with about 1 teaspoon of the blue cheese filling and fold the date closed. Wrap each date with a bacon piece, top with a jalapeño slice, and secure with a toothpick. Arrange dates on the prepared baking sheet.
4. Bake dates until the bacon is rendered and beginning to crisp, 20 to 25 minutes, flipping dates once after 15 minutes. Remove from the oven and immediately drizzle the hot dates with the honey. Transfer dates to a serving platter and garnish with chives. Serve hot.
