Slip & Fall Accident Injuries

If you have ever suffered a slip and fall, whether in public, on another's property, or at work, you likely experienced a mixture of embarrassment and pain, as well as a significant injury. Whenever you walk in a public place, there may be existing hazards present which could lead to a slip and fall with injury. Floors may be wet and/or slippery, there could be poor lighting in the area, or there may be items left in the walkway, creating a trip hazard. Whatever the cause, any time a person suffers a slip and fall accident, striking a solid surface, injuries can occur.

If the solid surface comes into contact with a fleshy part of the body, the injuries will likely be less severe, although still painful and serious. If a person's bones or skull connect with a solid surface, the resulting injuries can be much more traumatic. In the most severe instances of a slip and fall, the injured person could face astronomical medical expenses and may be unable to return to his or her normal job.

If you have suffered a slip and fall in the grocery store, restaurant, gym, office building, or in another public place, you know it can happen in an instant. Please do not assume that your slip and fall injury was, in some way, your fault. If you were injured on another's property, it is important to understand that it is the owner's responsibility to keep the environment safe, preventing injuries such as yours. When a property owner or the person responsible for the property fails to keep the area safe for the public, they may have exhibited negligence and may be responsible for your injuries.

At The Law Offices of Dianne Sawaya, we understand what an extremely emotional time this is for you. A slip and fall injury can take you entirely by surprise, and if you do not have the proper help, you may be devastated by the medical, financial, and emotional consequences of that fall. Love & Kisses Cookies

Ingredients

- 12 ounces of semisweet chocolate chips
- 1 cup packed brown sugar
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 stick (8 tablespoons) salted butter, softened
- 3 large eggs
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup cocoa powder
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt
- 2 cups red sprinkles

• 48 milk chocolate candies, such as Hershey's Kisses®

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Line 2 baking sheets with silicone baking mats or parchment paper.
2. In a microwave-safe bowl, add the chocolate chips. Microwave in 30-second intervals, stirring between each interval, until melted. Allow to cool.
3. Using a stand mixer with a paddle attachment, mix the brown sugar, granulated sugar, butter and cooled chocolate on medium speed until combined. Add the eggs one at a time, mixing after each addition, then the vanilla. Scrape the sides of the bowl and continue to mix on medium speed until combined.
4. Whisk together the flour, cocoa powder, baking powder and salt in a bowl. Gradually add the dry ingredients to the mixer and mix until just combined.
5. Put the red sprinkles in a bowl. Scoop mounded tablespoons of the dough. Roll into balls and roll each ball in the sprinkles to cover completely. Place on the prepared baking sheets. Bake until the cookies are poufy and set, about 10 minutes. When still warm, press a chocolate candy into the top of each. Let the cookies sit on the baking sheets for 2 minutes, then remove them to a wire rack to cool completely. Repeat with the remaining dough, sprinkles and chocolate candies.
